DID YOU KNOW?

- Antalya is home to the best-preserved Roman theater in Turkey, the Aspendos Theatre, which is renowned for its remarkable acoustics and still hosts performances today.
- The city's name, Antalya, is derived from Attalia, named after the Roman King Attalus II, who founded the city in the 2nd century BC as a strategic port.
- Antalya enjoys over 300 days of sunshine per year, making it one of Turkey's sunniest cities and a popular destination for beachgoers and outdoor enthusiasts.
