TIPS

- Reserve your cruise early to ensure availability
- dress elegantly to match the cruise's ambiance
- eat lightly if you're prone to seasickness
- Be mindful of local customs and practices
- Show respect to the crew and fellow passengers
- Some cruises may have souvenir shops on board that accept cash, so it is advisable to carry some

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Bosphorus Strait uniquely separates Europe and Asia, so during the cruise, you'll literally be sailing between two continents, offering a one-of-a-kind geographical experience.
- Many of Istanbul's most iconic landmarks, such as the Dolmabahçe Palace and the Maiden's Tower, are beautifully illuminated at night, providing a stunning and magical view from the water.
- The Bosphorus has been a strategic and cultural crossroads for centuries, historically used by various empires and civilizations, including the Byzantine and Ottoman empires, making it a site of immense historical significance.
